PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray... Beloved and sovereign God, through the death and resurrection of your Son you bring us into your kingdom of justice and mercy. By your Spirit, give us your wisdom, that we may treasure the life that comes from Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

Following the prayer, please SIT.

WORD

READING: Romans 8:26-30

²⁶The Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. ²⁷And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God. ²⁸We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. ²⁹For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn within a large family. ³⁰And those whom he predestined he also called; and those whom he called he also justified; and those whom he justified he also glorified.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

ALLELUIA VERSE The assembly STANDS to welcome the gospel.

Al-le-lu - ia, al - le-lu - ia, al-le-lu - ia.

*Cantor: Many will come from east and west and will eat in the kingdom of heaven.
 Repeat alleluia.*

GOSPEL: Matthew 13:31-33

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew. Glory to you, O Lord.

³¹[Jesus] put before [the crowds] another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in his field; ³²it is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches." ³³He told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour until all of it was leavened."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ. Please SIT.

LITURGY OF HEALING

Our Lord Jesus healed many as a sign of the reign of God come near and sent the disciples to continue this work of healing – with prayer, the laying on of hands, and anointing. In the name of Christ, the great healer and reconciler of the world, we now entrust to God all who are in need of healing.

During this liturgy, those who sense the need for God's healing in any aspect of their lives may come forward to receive the gifts of prayer and of the laying on of hands, accompanied by anointing with oil. These signs, first given in baptism, tell us again that we are sealed by the Holy Spirit and marked forever with the cross of Christ, who is health and salvation for the whole world. We come with our various needs, aware of our brokenness, and our desire for God's healing presence amid whatever we face, whether it be physical illness, loneliness, pain, grief, or other struggles.

Please SIT, and come forward as you wish

CLOSING PRAYER

Let us pray... Living God, through the laying on of hands and anointing, grant comfort in suffering to all those before you today. When they are afraid, give them courage; when afflicted, give them patience; when dejected, give them hope; and when alone, assure them of the support of your holy people. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

PEACE

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

And also with you.

The assembly is invited to share a greeting of God's peace with one another. Please be respectful to those who wish to do so from a distance. Following the Peace, you may be seated for a few moments

Should you wish to leave an offering today, it may be placed in the wooden box on the table near the baptismal font at any point during or after the service.

Family Hospice Guest Speaker – TODAY!

This morning the Health and Wellness Ministry will host guest speaker Jane Edgar from Family Hospice on Grief and Grief Support. Many of our members have experienced the loss of a beloved family member or friend in recent years. Many who died during the pandemic may not have had a funeral or memorial service, and the survivors' grief was overshadowed by events related to the pandemic. We encourage all to come to this adult education hour to share and support each other.
